Valiant Prince Valiant To Remain UB Mascot

By ILONA SOMYAS

The puzzle in which the question of Prince Valiant's ownership was the missing piece, has been solved, pending ratification by the Student Council. The Great Dane's former owner, Roland Blais, turned the responsibility over to Pat Cole, one of the original members of the Mascot Committee.

KENNEL OWNER HELPS

Mrs. Von Berg, owner of the Housatonic Kennels in Stratford has been housing the Great Dane. The Student Council committee had let it be known that they could no longer pay the $37 a month necessary for the dog's room and board. The only alternative was for the dog to be returned to its original owner. Mrs. Von Berg, having worked with and trained the dog, impressed Mr. Brewer with her sincere feelings involved with the ownership of the dog. She has almost completely cured him of the kennel sores, and feels that a lot would be undone if the dog were to be returned to his former residence.

Mrs. Von Berg stated that she would accept the official ownership of the Great Dane with the agreement that she wouldn't charge the Mascot Committee for the dog's room and board beyond February 25. No decision, however, has been reached.

Even though Mrs. Von Berg won't formally charge the mascot committee for the Great Dane's room and board, a committee headed by Pat Cole plans to solicit money for his support, and turn it over to Mrs. Von Berg as an expression of our gratitude. It is to be noted that there is no pressure for payment of the dog's upkeep.

INSURANCE UNCERTAIN

It has been suggested that since the Student Council and the University officials feel rather strongly about the $50,000 insurance, they guarantee payment of the annual premium to Mrs. Von Berg. This cost ranges between $15 and $20 a year.

20 YEARS SERVICE. That's how long William W. Everett (center) and Charles B. Goulding (right) have been teaching at the University and the Junior College of Connecticut. Alfred V. Bodine, chairman of the Board of Trustees, presents them with awards at the University's fourth annual All-University dinner at the Stratfield Hotel recently.

Keep Library Open! Fill Out Petition!

In co-operation with the SCAC, the SCRIBE has instituted the library petition below. All students are urged to fill out this ballot concerning keeping the University Library open on week-ends.

Having the library open will aid students seeking a quiet place for study and enable them to work on term papers and special reports over the week-end. This issue was presented to the SCAC by resident hall students who rely on week-ends to do the major part of their research work. The present short hours of the library's week-end schedule does not allow enough time to accomplish a thorough job of research.

Ballot boxes have been posted in the Snack Bar and on every bulletin board. Students are requested to sign the petition and drop it in one of the boxes as soon as possible.

Fones Dental School Approved By NY State Board of Education

The New York State Board of Education became the third state to approve the Fones School of Dental Hygiene, Dr. H. W. Strang announced.

Only 16 other schools in the country have so far received this recognition by New York State. Only one other school in New England, the Forsythe Training School for Dental Hygienists, in Boston, Mass., has been so approved.

UB has already received approval from Connecticut and Rhode Island.

"Recognition by New York allows our graduates to practice in that state after taking dental board examinations," declared Dr. Strang. "Plans are being made to increase the enrollment of dental hygienists from the present 32 students to 48 next Fall, and to make the course of instruction open to students outside Connecticut for the first time."

Members of the examining committee from New York were David

W. Beier, D.D.S., secretary of the State Board of Dental Examiners, and Robert C. Killough, Jr., assistant commissioner for professional education.

SCRIBE Gets Holiday

Due to a lack of funds, The SCRIBE will be forced to eliminate two issues during the month of April. There will be two issues during the month, appearing on April 11 and 25.

More Than 25 Groups To Have Concessions

With over 25 campus organizations sponsoring booths the "Big Top" will go up Saturday night for UB's fourth annual Circus Dance at the State Armory with all proceeds to go to the University's Purple Feather Chest Fund. This dance is under the co-sponsorship of the social activities committee and the UB Campus Chest. The circus atmosphere will be carried out in the booths and concessions set up by the following organizations: Linden Hall, Sigma Phi Alpha, Marketing Club, Park Hall, Trumbull Hall, Milford Hall, Seaside Hall, Southport Hall, Stratford Hall, Alpha Gamma Phi, Waldemere Hall, Wistaria Hall, Photography Club, Spanish Club, Delta Epsilon Beta, Biology Society, Beta Gamma, Pi Omega Chi, Phi Omicron Upsilon, Sigma Lambda Chi, Alpha Delta Omega, Scribe, Helicon, Wistarian, Theta Sigma, Upsilon Beta Sigma, and the Knights of Thunder.

One of the highlights of the evening will be the inter-show featuring the "Hungry Seven." Jimmy Barton will provide the musical entertainment. It is expected that a large crowd will enjoy the festivities as well as contributing to the worthwhile Campus Chest fund.

Members of the committee in charge of the dance include Claire Saltman, Norden Hahn, and Ben Raubvogel, chairmen. Others include Mimi Rosoff, Jean Coury, Sari Rose, and Sydele Solomon. Boris C. Moskalenko will be head cashier.

"The dance" stated Claire, "is a stag or drag affair and everyone is urged to attend. Don't wait for a date. Its fashionable to go stag! Tickets are 50 cents or acceptance of your student activities ticket. So make a note today to get in on the fun by being under the 'Big Top' Saturday night."

Mid-Semester Grades

Mid-semester grades will be posted by student number this Spring. Mr. Vincent Irving of the Records Office announces that any student who does not know his student number should check with him. Watch the bulletin boards for information concerning where grades are to be posted.

Intramural Hoop Benefit Thursday For Ted Ivanko

A benefit basketball game between Kappa Beta Rho, unbeaten IM hoop champions, and Arnold College IM winners will be played in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Thursday at 4 P. M. The use of the hall has been offered for the afternoon tilt.

Proceeds from the benefit, the admission to which is 25c, will go towards defraying the hospital expenses of Ted Ivanko, UB IM star, who underwent surgery last week for an ankle injury received in play. The recuperating Ivanko, winner of this year's IM foul shooting crown, will be viewing the contest from the sidelines.

Members of the Kappa Beta Rho team which this year won its third straight IM championship are: Henry Kuba, Vin Milewski, Bill Cosnahan, Ed Casey, Bob Casey, Ernie Boros, Frank Rizzardi, Ted Ivanko, and Bob Fox.

The Arnold winner will not be known until that school's playoffs this afternoon.

Officials for the game will be Andy Olayos and Don Marchette. A women's prelim at 3:00 P. M. will get the proceedings under way.

'Wistaria Queen' Nominations Open

Nominations for this year's Wistaria Queen will open April 2 and continue to April 13, it was announced this week by Norden Hahn, social activities committee chairman. Blanks may be secured from the Office of Social Activities. No late nominations will be accepted.

The actual balloting for the selection of the Wistaria Queen will take place April 18, 19, and 20. Watch the bulletin boards for all regulations and further information concerning Wistaria Week-end.

Library Petition

I would like to see the administration keep the University library open on Saturdays and Sundays to help us who have term papers and special reports to do, or just want a quiet place in which to study.

He might be the merry-andrew of the marshlands, but lately he's been downright glum about these trick cigarette mildness tests. Never one to duck facts, he holds nothing much can be proved by a sniff of one brand or a quick puff from another. Snap judgments can't take the place of regular, day-to-day smoking. That's why so many smokers are turning to ...

Baseball Hopes for '51 Dependent on 'Big Nine'

By ED PETTIT

The UB Hot Stove Baseball League shoved its last Post Mortems into the fire of Winter debate, banked it for another year, and greeted baseball's 1950 edition on campus.

All contracts mailed to veterans were signed and returned with last year's salary of a lettered sweater remaining as the standard wage scale.

Coach Herb Glines' diamond diary lists the names of nine returnees from last year plus an assortment of rookie prospects needed to fill open positions and to replenish the bench brigade. To date, both left field and first base lay unclaimed.

Amidst the clatter of little cleated feet, Mr. Glines officially unwrapped the swaddling Spring training sessions by throwing out the first ball. When it was finally found, practice got under way.

Leading the Knights into action were the Bib Nine. These include the great power at the plate potential of Lou Saccone in center field, Bill Cox in left, and Walt Budney at second. All can be regarded as clean up hitters and will no doubt be hanging out their line drives from the 3, 4, and 5 slots in the batting order.

In the spot which is considered as 75% of the ball game—pitching—UB has a candidate who has 100% possibilities in George "Lefty" Brown who should prove the diamonding factor in the forthcoming nine game slate. Last year he extracted the stinger from the—now defunct—Bridgeport Bees of the Colonial League—also defunct.

Other starting assignments are slated for Frank Giannini at third, Bill Tielert at short, captain and catcher Emmet Lyons, Lionel McCabe and John Micka as moundsmen.

All in all, UB's diamond men in the rough should be well polished under the lapidary guidance of Coach Glines and be in top condition come April 18 and Arnold College.

BELTING BUDNEY Looking hopefully ahead to a successful season is UB's star second baseman, Walt Budney. A major cog in the Knights' 1950 run-producing machine, Budney's potent bat is again expected to aid UB's attack. Walt, a resident of Ivoryton, Conn., is a Political Science major.

The Billboard

By BILL CHAMBAULT, JR.

Lou Saccone, Gus Seaman and Capt. Dick LaBash all finished with more than 300 points, with Saccone's leading mark of 382 setting a new school scoring record, final official basketball figures for the 1950-51 season, released by UB's expert statistician, Lionel F. (Mac) McCabe, Jr., indicate.

Saccone, in setting the new school standard, canned 154 of 406 shots taken from action and was successful on 74 of his 175 foul attempts. He averaged 15.3 points per contest.

Leading scorer one year ago, Seaman was forced to take a back-seat to Saccone in the tally-producing activity. Seaman scored 355 markers for a per-game average of 14.2. He was second also to Saccone in the number of field goals with 145. Seaman's value was shown in another department, however, as he led the team in rebounding, gathering in 426 during the 25-game schedule.

LaBash, only other man to pass the 300-mark in scoring, was also the only other Knight to hit with more than 100 field goals, his two marks of 304 and 104 just getting him over the twin humps. Exceptionally proficient from the foul line where he was Number 1 man last year, LaBash again was the leading foul maker with 96 points. However, percentage-wise, UB's captain ran second to Ted Brennan who dropped 37 of 48 tries for a high mark of .771.

Brennan, who played in only 15 contests compared to the top trio who participated in 25, was the fourth and last UB hoopster to score more than 100 points. Brennan compiled 227, for an average game output of 15.1, second only to Saccone's leading figure.

These four players—Saccone, Seaman, LaBash and Brennan—dominated this year's scoring totals. With the two exceptions of Ed Lengyel's .348 shooting percentage (40 for 115) and Josh Liburd's foul shooting mark of .640 (16 for 25), the top four had the show pretty much to themselves.

Saccone, Seaman, and LaBash were the only men to play in all 25 games. They, along with Brennan, were the only players to grab off more than 100 rebounds, having respective figures of 339, 426, 102, and 104.

They were also the only ones to have a hand in setting individual records during the long season. Brennan's 17 field goals and 42 points, both tallied in the second Bradford-Durfee contest, were tops in those departments. LaBash's 11 foul markers in 14 attempts in the Brooklyn College encounter was also high for the year.

High team score for the campaign was 88 in the Bradford-Durfee struggle. Three times, twice versus Bradford-Durfee and once against Hillyer, UB hit for 37 field goals. High mark in foul shooting was the 21 tallied in the first Fairfield U clash.

Frank Castellucci Named Hoop Ace In Intramural Play

Frank Castellucci, leading scorer for the Independent League champions, the Hatchetmen, was voted the most outstanding intramural basketball player of the past season, by Tony Iannone, IM director.

Castellucci, in earning his new honor, set five new school records, although four of them must be viewed with slight suspicion, to say the least.

His new marks were leading league scorer, 167 points; high score in one game, 71 points; most field goals in one game, 35; high score in a playoff game, 17 points;

fall, won the intramural bowling title by a margin of five full games over its nearest rival, Theta Sigma.

KBR (34-2) was never seriously pressed throughout the entire race. However, TS just did nip Beta Alpha for second-spot, its final edge being a slim one-game.

Sigma Phi Alpha squeaked by Alpha Gamma Phi with a one-game bulge to gain the fourth and final playoff berth.

First round pairings have KBR meeting BA, and TS opposing SPA.

KBR was led throughout its and most field goals in one season, 79.

Only legitimate mark is the playoff standard. The others are all tainted by a extra-long fourth period in a regular season game. When the contest had finally ended, Castellucci had his 71 markers, 35 field goals and was on his way toward establishing the two season marks.

triumphant campaign by Don Greenwood who set two records. His respective marks of 386 and 112.5 for high three single and high individual average were new IM bowling records. BA also established a new standard with a high three team mark of 1581.
